2008 Alumni Award Winners

Lifetime Achievement Award
Suzanne Fleisher Roberts
Class of 1941

Suzanne Roberts’ achievements are endless. From the bright lights of the stage to the small screen with her television program “Seeking Solutions with Suzanne,” to her unwavering public service, Ms. Roberts’ grace, intelligence and love of learning made her the perfect choice for the Lifetime Achievement Award.

Outstanding Young Alumnus
Tracy Johnson
Class of 2004

“I’m not sure if Tracy supported Harcum’s mission or if Harcum supported Tracy’s – regardless, the college relationship with Tracy is synergetic,” said Cindy Caneveri ’90, NAB awards committee chair. While attending Harcum and even after graduation, Tracy’s high energy and enthusiasm helped Harcum’s program flourish and grow.

Service to the Association
Lynda Wolf Brotemarkle
Class of 1967

Lynda Wolf Brotemarkle’s dedication to this college must be in the genes. Lynda’s mother, Betty was a 1941 graduate of Harcum and helped establish an alumni association. As one of the founding members of the National Alumni Board, Lynda was co-chairman from 2005-2006. Lynda spearheaded the Heritage Project that involves improvements to the older buildings on campus. Unfortunately, she was unable to attend the luncheon, so we were so pleased to welcome her sister Charlotte Mark in her stead to accept the award.

Community Service Award
Josephine Jones Cobb Holt
Class of 1938

“Jiggie” served on Lynchburg’s Junior League, United Way of Central Virginia, Holy Cross Catholic Church, Adult Care Center of Central Virginia, Interfaith Outreach Association, she assisted a Somali Bantu family settle in Virginia, she drove cancer patients to their medical appointments and she served as a docent at the restored homestead of Dr. George Cabell (who was a friend of Patrick Henry and Thomas Jefferson), she was a Brownie Troop leader and served as her PTA president. “I’m exhausted and in awe,” said Cindy as she presented the award.

Outstanding Alumnus Award
Dorothea Cavallucci
Class of 1980 and 1993

What our past president, the late Dr. Charles Trout had to say about Dossie, continues to ring true. “Dossie’s commitment to this institution and to her students is exemplary. While leading her program and supporting her students, she has also participated on numerous committees and served as a faculty senate officer. She holds her students as a priority and she also supports colleagues in their collective effort toward success for all Harcum enrollees.”
