2012 Alumni Award Winners

Lifetime Achievement

This award recognizes an individual for outstanding achievement in her or his life, personal integrity and lasting contributions to their chosen profession. This award is the highest honor given by the Alumni Association.

Hillary Ripps ’66 - Early Childhood Education

Shortly after graduating, Hillary established a successful production career in Los Angeles. She worked on several films and helped start a production company that influenced the re-emergence of the short-film format. Her company was nominated for 11 Academy Awards and won three. Hillary won her own Oscar for her work as executive producer on the short film “12:01.” Hillary is an active member of the Academy of Motion Pictures Arts & Sciences, and currently works at Julien’s Auction House, the premier auction house featuring celebrity and entertainment memorabilia. She is also a committed volunteer for the Hollywood Ronald McDonald House and Guide Dogs of America.

Outstanding Alumna/us

This award recognizes a member of the graduating class from the most recent 10 years who has made extraordinary advancements in his or her career, been an active member of the Alumni Association and/or supported the College in a significant manner.

Ann Caulfield VMD, CCRT, CVA ’82 - Veterinary Technician

After graduating from Harcum, Ann Caulfield worked as a veterinary technician at the University of Pennsylvania’s New Bolton Center. She attended the Penn’s School of Veterinary Medicine, and was certified as a Canine Rehabilitation Therapist and a Veterinary Acupuncturist at the University of Tennessee’s College of Veterinary Medicine. In addition to her position at Berwyn Veterinary Center, she currently heads Rehabilitation Medicine at Ryan Hospital at Penn’s School of Veterinary Medicine.
Susan Doebling ’92 - Dental Hygiene

Since her graduation, Susan Doebling has become an integral part-time faculty member for both the dental hygiene and dental assisting programs at Harcum College. The students find her teaching style to be among the very best and her clinical education to be outstanding. Susan also regularly volunteers for Harcum’s Sealant Saturday events.

Sandra Whitacre Feather ’85 - Physical Therapist Assistant

Upon graduation, Sandra Feather went on to receive a BS in Molecular Biology and an MS in Physical Therapy. She is currently working toward a PhD in Higher Education Leadership. She was the director of the Physical Therapist Assistant (PTA) program at Harcum College for nearly 10 years and later served as the Director of Admissions. She is a dedicated, challenge-driven higher education professional who currently works as the Director of Enrollment Management at Penn State Worthington Scranton.
