SOCIAL JUSTICE DEGREE PROGRAM students will develop a foundational understanding of the civil and criminal justice systems, community organizations, social movements, and the impact of bias, discrimination, and inequality. Current and historical social issues and movements will be included in the coursework (mass incarceration, real estate redlining, and inequality in healthcare).

Graduates may continue their education in a Bachelor's degree program and/or immediately join the workforce.

According to the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics Occupational Outlook Handbook, careers in community and social services will grow faster than average (approximately 14%) by 2026.

PROGRAM LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Summarize the historical evolution of a social justice movement.
- Compare and contrast purposes and procedures of juvenile justice and criminal justice.
- Differentiate between morals, ethics, and laws.
- Apply various sociological and criminal behavior theories.

HARCUM COLLEGE

HARCUM COLLEGE operates under a rolling admissions policy, which means that the Admissions Committee reviews each application file as soon as it is complete. Applicants will be notified within 10 working days of a decision, and of any conditions necessary for entry. Prospective students are advised to apply as early as possible to ensure admission to the program of choice.

Applications are processed without discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, handicap or disability, veteran status, or marital or parental status.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

- Application (Free online)
- High School transcript
- College transcript (if applicable)
